

Dean Alan D. Solomont

Alan D. Solomont is dean of the Jonathan M. Tisch College of Citizenship and Public Service at Tufts University. Dean Solomont has been an entrepreneur and political activist, and served as the National Finance Chair of the Democratic Party. He was appointed by President Clinton to the bipartisan board of directors of the Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS). He was reappointed by President Bush and became chairman in 2009. President Obama named Dean Solomont as the United States Ambassador to Spain and Andorra. From 2010 to 2013, he strengthened Spain's cooperation with the United States on matters of global security and economic policy, and worked tirelessly to support increased trade and investment between our countries. Dean Solomont has a long history of involvement with Tufts University, and was the founding chair of the Tisch College Board of Advisors.
