

Milenko Gudic

Founding Director, REFONENT Consulting & Coaching, Belgrade, Serbia, and PRME Anti-poverty Working Group coordinator.

Designed and managed IMTA - International Management Teachers Academy, which in 2000-2014 educated 510 professors from 152 institutions in 43 countries around the globe. Through the Economics Institute – Belgrade, and as a consultant to international organizations, including OECD, UNDP, UNIDO, ICPE, CEEMAN, he designed and led research, consulting and institution-building projects, including in management education. He was visiting lecturer at the Faculty of Economics, University of Montenegro, and frequent guest speaker at business schools and conferences worldwide. He was Program Chair of EURAM 2008 conference on Managing Diversity: European Destiny and Hope. Co-edited the book “Socially Responsive Organizations and the Challenge of Poverty” (Greenleaf Publishing, 2014). Member of the Society for Technology, Culture and Development. He has accomplished training at prominent multinational consulting firms and faculty development programs at IESE-Barcelona and Harvard Business School.